Empowering parents – promoting children

How does school in Basel work?

Where can my child learn German?

The school has sent me a letter, what does this mean?

I have to work – who will look after my child?

My child would like to take part in some free-time activities. What is available?

I'm not very familiar with Basel. Where can I find more information?

Would you like some support in answering these questions?

We would be happy to advise and assist you!

Who are we? We are a team of specialists trained in the intercultural sector and work for the Brückenbauer:innen (bridge builders) programme. We are familiar with all of the issues in the family sector from our own experience of migration. We can support, advise and assist you in important questions concerning your child (from preschool onwards). We help you to assist your child's development and to maintain good relations with their school and teachers.

What do we do? We meet interested families on a regular basis, share information, explain the Swiss educational, health, and social system, point out suitable advisory centres and offerings and assist you in discussions at school or with other specialist departments. We work around your needs.

Are you interested and live in Basel-Stadt? Then please call us or write us an email. We will then get in contact with you. This offering is available in sixteen languages and is free of charge for you. You can find detailed information on our website:
